CATERPILLAR 1 CLASS

Dear Parents,

It is officially Fall and we are very excited for all the wonderful events during this season. We will soon be celebrating Halloween and the babies can participate in wearing their favorite costume on this day. We are so happy to have your little ones in our care and we thank you all for your continued trust.

CATERPILLAR 2 CLASS

Dear Parents,

Fall is here! It is another exciting season full of spooky and spectacular activities. Our little ones are enthusiastic about coming to school every day. They are always having fun playing and participating in classroom activities, especially circle time. They started painting pumpkins and leaves with fall colors too. We have another big event coming up which is Halloween! Get ready with their costumes or outfits for our parade and trick or treating at Carousel! Also, this month we will learn about the letter B, number 2, shape square and color black. Lastly, please be reminded to check your child's extra clothes and make sure that all their belongings are labeled. Thank you so much!

Student of the Month

Our September student of the month is the "Wise and Witty" Dean Chernoff! He always has a big smile on his face. He actively participates in our circle time and listens attentively during story time. He shares his insights into the story and is very expressive all the time. He knows his phonics, colors, shapes, body parts and he likes to count from 1-10. We always hear him say "oh no", "wow", "what happen", "what are we going to do" and his silly "meow". Dean is also a very good friend and helpful to his teachers. He is a good observer, independent and has great skills in building Legos/blocks. Noticeably, he shows amazing creative thinking skills in the use of toys. For example, he plays with a toy plate then identifies the shape and color of it and will eventually pretend that he is driving and turning it into a wheel! He is impressive, silly and amazing. We all love Dean! Congratulations! Way to go!

Halloween will be especially exciting as everyone gets to show off their favorite Halloween costumes and celebrate together! We look forward to a fun and memorable October filled with learning, laughter, and lots of smiles! We will be focusing on the following areas this month:

Student of the Month

We are so proud of Bowen Meinhold for being our student of the month! Bowen always shows excitement and curiosity while learning! He loves exploring new activities, joining in during circle time, and discovering something new each day. He can identify colors, shapes, opposites, and the days of the week. He can recognize numbers 1-10, some letters of the alphabet, and count from 1-12. Keep smiling, learning, and having fun, Bowen! Congratulations!

DRAGONFLY CLASS

This month, aside from celebrating Halloween and Indigenous People's Day, we will also be working on the following areas:

Letters: D, E, F

Numbers: 3, 4

Shape: Square

Color: Black

Concept: Opposites

Student of the Month

We are pleased to announce Solomon Ulaner as our student of the month! Solomon is sweet, bubbly and full of energy. He actively participates in class activities and eagerly listens during story time. He consistently shows perseverance in completing his task and takes great pride in his work! Above all, he has great academic and communication skills! Keep up the great work Solly. We are proud of you!

BUMBLEBEE CLASS

Dear Parents,

Thank you so much for your continued patience and support this past month. We truly appreciate it. We begin October by observing the environmental changes of autumn and discussing the differences between seasons. Why do leaves change color, and what happens to them are only a few of the questions we will focus on. Our students look forward to using their creative minds to create many of our Halloween-themed crafts. Besides making our classroom spooktacular, they will also learn about our routines and classroom rules. And most importantly, our students will learn what it means to be a good friend and what acts of kindness they can do. We are more than a classroom. We are a family of happy bees who care for one another and celebrate our differences.

"This is Halloween, everybody makes a scene!" Jack Skellington

Student of the Month

We are excited to announce Nikos Vittas Andrade as our student of the month for September. Nikos is a clever and kind student whose confidence has grown so much. During story time, he eagerly raises his hand to answer open ended questions and loves to share his thoughts. He is a compassionate leader who cares for all his friends. If a classmate is hurt, he first rushes to check on them and makes sure to inform teachers right away. The "Three Little Pigs" is one of Niko's favorite stories, and many of his game ideas revolve around it. When playing outdoors, he takes turns deciding who will be the big bad wolf and who will be the three little pigs. Nikos is also hardworking and determined when it comes to completing his classwork. He is passionate about learning and, most importantly, loves being in school. We are proud of you, Nikos, and we hope you keep up the amazing work.
